JIM 'N NICK'S COMMUNITY BAR-B-Q CONTINUES GROWTH IN SOUTH CAROLINA BY OPENING NEW LOCATION IN SPARTANBURG

To celebrate Spartanburg, S.C., opening and its community values, brand donates to local organization, Upstate Warrior Solution

SPARTANBURG, S.C. (July 16, 2025) — Jim 'N Nick's Community Bar-B-Q \(JNN\), known for award-winning barbecue, Southern hospitality and supporting the communities it serves, celebrated the grand opening of its new location in Spartanburg today at 106 E Blackstock Road. Spartanburg public officials, including OneSpartanburg Inc.'s Investor Relations Coordinator Noah Porter and Director of Small Business Development Jay Jenkins, Councilman Jamie Fulmer and Upstate Warrior Solution's Warrior Advocate Lauren O'Dell and Jimmy Pregel gathered to celebrate the new restaurant.

The new Spartanburg location features a quick-casual+ dining style, allowing for fast customer service while providing the same award-winning barbecue, hospitality and community-oriented atmosphere that have been cornerstones of the brand for decades.

"We're excited to be part of the Spartanburg community," said Jason Trenkler, local owner of Jim 'N Nick's. "The warm reception we've experienced so far has been amazing, and we look forward to serving up our signature barbeque with the new neighborhood."

To further celebrate the new location and serve as a strong community advocate, Jim 'N Nick's Spartanburg partnered with Upstate Warrior Solution to raise $2,500 for the organization at its recent family and friends' weekend.

"We sincerely appreciate the generous donation from the Jim 'N Nick's team," said Upstate Warrior Solution Warrior Advocate Lauren O'Dell. "Their dedication to giving back to the community truly reflects their mission to support and connect those in need."

The brand plans to open several additional locations over the next 12 months. Jim 'N Nick's is eager to bring new team members on board to continue its mission of treating customers like family.
